Shifting Gears

On May 1st, my husband Dwight fell 12 feet from the top of a tanker truck onto a tile surface. He broke his hip and shattered his wrist. We are both grateful that he is here at all and not hurt worse than he is. The doctors expect a full recovery in about 6 months. Needless to say, I've canceled many of my public appearances. For more information, please visit my blog.

Events

5/28 - 5/30: "Give Your Walls Some Soul" taping

6/25: "Give Your Walls Some Soul" taping

7/8 - 7/9: LATV Festival - I'll be pitching my show to the world.

7/14: San Benito County Library Summer Reading Program - I'm going to work with kids and write a song. We will be exploring creativity as a part of everyday life.

7/17: Leadership San Benito County Art Day - I'll be talking with county leaders about creativity and we'll create some fun! Last year we tossed water balloons filled with paint at a black canvas, created a wonderful art piece and then auctioned it off for charity.
