Painting News

I am working on a series of mini landscape paintings to benefit the YMCA of San Benito County. I'll give a portion of the proceeds from the sale of these little paintings to their Community Support Campaign. I love this campaign! It funds programs for our local youth. It's great to see how many lives our YMCA can touch. The show date will be in March. Details will be included in the next newsletter.

Also in the works are a series of whimsical paintings. The subjects are children, toys, and silly scapes....I think the sock monkeys are definitely taking over.....

I just completed some wild abstract landscapes! To see works in progress, please visit my blog.

Monkey Made of Sockies

Monkey Made of Sockies was the center of attention at the Leta Lindley Prader-Willi Golf Classic. I'm thrilled that my little monkey can help so many children. For the rest of the story, visit my MMOS blog.

And I know that I've mentioned it before, but I'm so honored that LPGA Pro, Leta Lindley, continues to champion Monkey Made of Sockies and help kids with Prader-Willi. Both Daphne's Headcovers and myself have teamed up with Leta to help these kids. We give a percentage of each MMOS sold to help children with Prader-Willi Syndrome. If you'd like to help by purchasing a MMOS headcover, visit Daphne's Headcovers today!

And don't forget the wonderful Monkey Made of Sockies children's book. This beautiful book makes a great gift!

Television News

It's official. This is our last season of Give Your Walls Some Soul. What a great run we have had! Thanks so much for your support. It's amazing to think we started out with one episode and one station. To date, we have produced over 75 wonderful episodes and are seen in about 10 million households. I'm shaking my head as I write this.

After 7 years, it's time to move onto a new show. We will continue taping new episodes through August of 2010. Now's the time to send me a note if you have a show idea for the last season.

As for my new show, I'm really excited about how it is shaping up. It's a fun reality series set in various locales. We are in pre-production right now and I expect to tape our first episode in February. You'll get more details next month. :-)

Give Your Walls Some Soul is now airing on stations around the country!! Click here to see if we're in your neck of the woods!!!
